ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE AUTHORITY

ORGANIZATION

1. Pursuant to a letter dated September 20, 1945, in which the President directed the Secretary of State to "take the lead in developing a comprehensive and co-ordinated foreign intelligence program for all Federal agencies concerned with that type of activity ... through the creation of an interdepartmental group, heading up under the State Department, which would formulate plans for (the President's) approval", there is hereby established an interdepartmental intelligence coordinating authority, to be known as the National Intelligence Authority.

MEMBERSHIP

2. N.I.A. The National Intelligence Authority will consist of the Secretary of State as Chairman and the Secretaries of War and the Navy.

3. Additional members. Upon invitation of the Chairman, the head of any other Department or Agency may sit as a member of the Authority on matters of particular interest to his Department or Agency.

4. Deputies. Any member of the Authority may designate a deputy of the rank of Under Secretary or Assistant Secretary, who in the absence of the member shall have plenary powers.

5. Secretariat. The Authority will be served by a Secretariat, consisting of an Executive Secretary and two Deputy Secretaries appointed by the Chairman, with app of War & Navy Assistant Secretaries approved by the Authority on the recommendation of the Executive Secretary, and a secretarial staff appointed by the Executive Secretary ~~from personnel of the Department of State or by detail from other participating agencies.~~ All members of the Secretariat, except the Executive Secretary, shall normally have no other duties. Secretaries may be augmented, on approval of the Authority, by detail of personnel from agencies other than those represented on the Authority. Administrative services, other than the provision and pay of personnel, will be furnished by the Department of State.

6. Advisory Groups. The Executive Secretary will be advised and assisted in the performance of his duties by two Advisory groups, consisting of a full-time representative of each of the following officials:

a. Advisory Group on Intelligence

- (1) Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, WDGS
- (2) Director of Naval Intelligence
- (3) Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Intelligence

b. Advisory Group on Security

- (1) Chief Coordinator, Treasury Enforcement Agencies
- (2) Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, WDGS
- (3) Director of Naval Intelligence
- (4) Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation

7. Committees. The Authority, upon recommendation of the Executive Secretary, will establish Committees, each of which will cover a major subject, area or kind of operation within the purview of the Authority. Such Committees will be the primary means by which the Authority will carry out its missions. Each Committee will consist of an Assistant Secretary as Chairman, who will be detailed full-time from the agency having primary responsibility or interest in that field, and of specially qualified part-time or full-time representatives from such other agencies as are determined by the Authority to have major responsibilities in the field. Administrative services for each Committee shall be furnished by the Executive Secretary.

peoples, forces, events, conditions, capabilities, and intentions which it is desirable to know in order to safeguard the national security and further national interests.

9. Security Intelligence. As used herein, "security intelligence" (sometimes referred to as "counter-intelligence") is the special category of intelligence covering all significant information about hostile persons, movements, ideologies, and activities, whether directed from at home or abroad, which constitute a real or potential threat to the national security or national interests.

FUNCTIONS

10. N.I.A. The National Intelligence Authority, in the broad field of foreign intelligence and in the specialized field of internal security and security intelligence, shall be responsible for the following functions:

a. The determination of national intelligence and security objectives and requirements, including those of all departments and agencies.

b. The determination of the most effective means, in terms of actual operations, for accomplishing those objectives and meeting those requirements.

c. The assignment, through a series of specific operating plans, of operating responsibilities to various department and agencies of the Government, based upon the general responsibilities of each department and the extent and effectiveness of its intelligence facilities.

d. The continuous review of the adequacy and efficiency of the intelligence and security programs of the Authority, including inspection, as approved by the Authority, of the operations of departmental intelligence agencies to whom operating responsibilities have been assigned by the Authority.

e. The establishment and direction of centralized intelligence or security operations when it shall be determined by the Authority that such operations can be performed more effectively by a centralized organization than by the intelligence agencies of individual departments or agencies.
